

Papillonia Dog Training Academy Presents
2-Day Obedience Seminar for Small Dogs
Jeannine Rash
Small Dog Multi-OTCH Trainer
Saturday, June 27 - Sunday, June 28, 2015

Multi-OTCH trainer Jeannine Rash, Papillonia Dog Training Academy (PDTA), is presenting small dog training techniques for a unique 2-day opportunity. This is the first time in many years this opportunity has been offered.

Jeannine has earned 4 Obedience Trial Championships (OTCH) and is currently working with her hardest dogs to date - a sound and sight sensitive Papillion, Chloe Cupcake, and 2 rescues from a local shelter. She is also raising a new Pap puppy, Josie. And she is actively showing Nicholas who has over 750 OTCH points.

Her training techniques are gained from 30+ years of training small dogs and are finely tuned with real life experiences. Jeannine has the ability to train through complications compounded by distance and big feet.

Come learn the secrets of training small dogs, widen your horizons with a new training outlook for productive and fulfilling training.

For this opportunity, small dogs are defined as Sheltie size or smaller. All students for this seminar are considered working, no reduced rate for auditor or non-working students. Class size is restricted to maximize this training opportunity; a wait list will be maintained.

Registered students will be notified by email. Specific details, including hotel, will be supplied by email. Written pre-work is required for this opportunity (supplied NLT May 1).
